The Employer and the Union agree that every effort will be made by management and the aggrieved party(s) to settle grievances at the lowest possible level. Inasmuch as dissatisfactions and disagreements arise occasionally among people in any work situation, the filing of a grievance shall not be construed as reflecting unfavorably on an employee's good standing, performance, loyalty, or desirability to the organization.

SECTION 5. (STEP 1) INFORMAL PROCEDURE. An employee of the bargaining Unit desiring to file a grievance must file an informal grievance with his/her immediate supervisor within 20 calendar days of the date of the event giving rise to the grievance or within 20 calendar days of the time the employee may have reasonably been expected to have learned of the event. Informal grievance may be presented orally, in writing, or both. The supervisor shall arrange for a meeting at a mutually agreeable time to discuss the matter. The supervisor will answer the grievance either orally or in writing within 15 calendar days from receipt of the grievance. If the grievance is submitted in writing, the supervisor will answer the grievance in writing.

(STEP 2) FORMAL PROCEDURE. If the employee is not satisfied with the answer given in Step 1, the employee or his/her Union representative may submit the grievance to the Division Manager or equivalent within 10 calendar days from receipt of the Step 1 answer.

The grievance shall be submitted in writing on a grievance form and shall contain the name of the grievant, location/routing symbol, the Article and Section of the Agreement alleged to have been violated (if known), the incident date, name of Union representative, name of Union representative, name of informal grievance official, date of the informal decision at Step 1, description of the events leading up to the grievance, the corrective action desired, and whether he/she wishes to make an oral presentation. The Division Manager's or equivalent's decision shall be delivered to the employee or Union representative within 10 calendar days following the meeting, or within 15 calendar days of receipt of the grievance if no meeting is requested.

(STEP 3) FORMAL PROCEDURE. If the employee or Union is not satisfied with the answer given in Step 2, the employee or his/her Union representative may submit the grievance in writing to the Civil Aeromedical Institute Director within 10 calendars days from receipt of the Step 2 answer. If requested, the Director or his/her designee shall arrange for a meeting to afford the employee and/or their Union representative an opportunity to present the grievance orally. The Director's or equivalent's decision shall be in writing and delivered to the employee or Union representative within 20 calendar days of receipt of the grievance.

(STEP 4) MEDIATION (OPTIONAL). Prior to arbitration being invoked, the Parties may, within 10 days of the Step 3 decision, mutually agree to request the assistance of a mediator in an attempt to resolve/settle the subject grievance. The agreement to request the assistance of a mediator by the Parties will suspend time limits pending the outcome of the mediation. Any costs incurred by mediation will be shared equally by the Parties.

(STEP 5) ARBITRATION. If the Union is not satisfied with the decision at Step 3, the Union may, within 20 calendar days following receipt of the decision at Step 3 or the day the answer was due, advise the Director, Civil Aeromedical Institute, in writing that the Union desires that the matter be submitted to an impartial arbitrator.

- a. Within 7 days after the request for arbitration is delivered, the Employer shall request the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service to submit a list of seven arbitrators. Within 10 days after receipt of the list, representatives of the Union and the Employer shall meet to select an arbitrator from the list by mutual agreement or by alternately striking names. A toss of a coin shall determine who strikes first.
- b. If, for any reason, either party refuses to participate in the selection of an arbitrator, the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service will be empowered to make a direct designation of an arbitrator to hear the case.
- c. The grievance shall be heard by the arbitrator as promptly as practicable on a date mutually agreeable to the Parties. The arbitrator will confine the hearing to the specific issues in dispute. The grievant and/or the Union representative, if an employee of the FAA, shall be given official time to present the grievance if otherwise in an active duty status.

- d. FAA employees who serve as witnesses during their normal duty time shall be considered to be in a duty status. Each party shall bear the expense of its own witnesses who are not employed by the FAA, and/or who are not at that duty location. The number of witnesses summoned at any one time shall be limited to the number who can be spared from their duties without interference to the mission of the facility.
- e. The arbitrator will render a decision as quickly as possible, but in no event later than 30 days following the closing of the record. The arbitrator's decision shall be final and binding; however, an exception to the arbitrator's award may be filed in accordance with applicable law (5 U.S.C. 7122) and regulations. Any dispute over the interpretation of the award shall be returned to the arbitrator for resolution, if requested by either party.
- f. The Parties will attempt to agree on the issue before the arbitrator. If the Parties fail to agree on the issue, each shall make a separate submission and the arbitrator will frame the issue from these submissions. The arbitrator shall not in any manner or form whatsoever directly or indirectly add to, detract from, or in any way alter the provisions of this Agreement.
- g. The arbitrator has authority to award, if supported by competent and substantive evidence in the record, appropriate remedies, including reasonable attorney fees, pursuant to the provisions of Section 702 of the Civil Service Reform Act.
- h. In the event either party should declare a grievance nongrievable or nonarbitrable, the original grievance shall be considered amended to include this issue. All disputes of grievability or arbitrability shall be referred to arbitration as a threshold issue in the related grievance. Declaration of nongrievability will be made promptly.
- i. The arbitrator's fees and all arbitration expenses shall be borne by the losing party. Where there is no clear winner, the arbitrator is empowered to prorate the cost among the Parties based on percentage.

SECTION 6. In the case of any grievance involving the interpretation or application of this Agreement or violation of a law, rule, or regulation affecting conditions of employment which the Union may have against the Employer, or which the Employer may have against the Union, such grievance shall be submitted in writing to the appropriate division manager or the appropriate designated representative of the Union as the case may be, within 20 calendar days of the event giving rise to the grievance, and shall contain the following:

- a. Statement setting forth the facts upon which the grievance is based.
- b. Reference to the Article and Section of the Agreement alleged to have been violated and/or the appropriate law, rule, or regulation;
 - c. The corrective action sought.

If no settlement is reached by the Parties within 15 days from the submission of the grievance, the grievance may be submitted to arbitration by the aggrieved Party in accordance with Section 6, Step 5 or the Parties may mutually agree to mediation in accordance with Section 6, Step 4. If mediation fails to resolve/settle the grievance, the aggrieved Party may submit the grievance to arbitration in accordance with Section 6, Step 5, within 10 days.

SECTION 7. Failure of a grievant to proceed with a grievance within any of the time limits specified in this Article shall render the grievance settled on the basis of the last decision given unless an extension of time limits has been agreed upon. Failure of management to render a decision within any of the time limits specified in this Article shall entitle the grievant to progress the grievance to the next step without a decision.
